Motaseshines on the red carpet

Dec 5th, 2008 by Katie

We received some great news from Ethical Weddings supplier, Motasesh yesterday.

Motasesh creates cocktail-style wedding dresses that you can wear again and again!

On Wednesday night, Sabina, the designer behind Motasesh, had the amazing opportunity to put her gowns into action on the red carpet in Leicester Square for the premiere of the film, 'Twilight'.

As Sabina says:

"Last night was the most amazing experience. I watched, like a proud mother, as two of my creations sashayed down the red carpet at last night's film premiere of Twilight in Leicester Square starring new heart-throb Robert Pattinson (move over Orlando Bloom!) and Kirstin Stewart."

I had two models wearing long ivory dresses (Alaya and Aurora) who stood behind Robert Pattinson, during his photo call with the photographers. The girls looked absolutely fantastic! They showed off my dresses so well, way better than I could ever have imagined."

Our congratulations to Sabina...we're sure everyone will be after a Motasesh dress now!
