Designer Sabina Ali of Motasem specialises in creating individual gowns for discerning customers, The Motasem label provides a range of cocktail-style wedding dresses for women who want to look different, whilst wanting to feel sexy and comfortable at the same time. With lots of quirky details, feminine drapes, silky fabrics and fluid shapes, her dresses radiate a cool, understated glamour. Choose from a set of fabrics and colours including organic silks. Visit www.motasem.co.uk or call 07788 713714

Gaiahouse has launched a stunning ready-to-wear bridal range. These beautiful gowns are handcrafted from the finest organic Peace* Silk wherever possible and the designer specialises in handpainting designs on to the gowns with organic dyes. The elegant, timeless classics are the perfect alternative to bespoke gowns for those brides-to-be who are on a budget but still want something that stands out and doesn't harm the environment in its production. Visit www.gaiahouse.uk.com or call 01273 833231

*Peace Silk or vegetarian silks are those that do not involve the killing of the silk worm during production and are harvested only after the silk worm has emerged from the cocoon as a moth.

 Where possible Gaiahouse uses silk which has come from ethically sound and environmental sources including Majestic Silks, Ahimsa Silks and Aurora Silks.
